He went after it, when the three, it is said, attacked him.

His skull was cut open, exposing the brain.

FLOTSAM—JETSAM—LIGAN!

NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Sherley passed up last night for Pomeroy.

The Bonanza will pass up tonight for Pomeroy.

The Henry M. Stanley will pass down tomorrow from the Kanawha river. She has a large trip of produce aboard.

The excursion business on the river was never so great as at present. Every boat that passes up or down has its full quota of passengers out for pleasure.

The river continues to fall slowly here, with 7 feet 5 inches on the marks. There is a slight rise, however, at headwaters, which will keep the dust off the sandbars for a couple of days at least.

The Hudson, the Queen of the upper Ohio, passed to Cincinnati this morning with about 200 round trip passengers and a heavy freight trip. She was about eight hours behind time, having left Pittsburgh late. She will return to that point tonight.

SEEK THE SUNNY SIDE.

If you loiter in the shadows
On a sunny day like this,
You will miss the lot of sunshine
And a certain kind of bliss.
Don't forget that on the highway
All the walks are free and wide,
And, when walking in the daytime,
Always seek the sunny side.
So on life's highway, remember
That a difference is plain;
There's a side that's bright with pleasure
And a side that's dark with pain.
If, perchance, your life is cloudy,
Don't forget the way is wide.
Look for brightness; it may happen
You will find a sunny side.

A BRAVE WOMAN.

She Killed a Huge Rattlesnake With a Small Stone.

Mrs. Colla Armstrong of Tannery, Lewis county, is a woman who is not afraid to assert her rights.

Thursday afternoon she was attending to some duties a little distance from her house, and upon returning she was startled by hearing a rattlesnake close to her.

She turned around, and as she did so his snakehead struck at the lady and missed her, when she grabbed up a rock and mashed the snake's head, after which she cut its head off.

A couple of gentlemen from this city were passing at the time, and the lady made one of them a present of the ten rattles and one button which were found on the snake.

It measured 4 feet 5 inches.

"MOUNTAIN MOONSHINE."

A Deep, Dark Secret Unearthed by a Pretty Maiden.

A conspiracy to defraud the Government out of money was unearthed in the trial of a case in the United States Court at Covington Thursday afternoon.

Minnie Oakley, a young woman who gave her age as 10 years and her home as Elliott county, was arrested in Morehead for selling whisky without a license.

During her examination she said that while in Morehead visiting she was taken ill and stopped at the residence of Mrs. Eversole.

While there she claimed that Mrs. Eversole and Miss Jennie Stegal and a man named George Hunstman had planned for her to sell the whisky, which they would furnish her, and that Hunstman was to inform the authorities.

She was to be arrested and each one of them would come to the trial as witnesses and get witness fees.

After this was done they would divide up with her.

She agreed to this plot, and Mrs. Eversole, so it is alleged, bought the whisky and placed it in her bed where she was lying ill.

Each then bought some whisky, whereupon Hunstman notified Sheriff J. D. Phillips of Morgan county.

He also made a purchase of a small quantity and then notified Deputy Marshal Lacey what was going on in Morehead.

The officers immediately repaired to the scene and the arrest followed.

Judge Barr, upon hearing this testimony, ordered all concerned in the affair placed under arrest and taken to Jail until the Grand Jury investigated their cases.

The discovery of this plot caused quite a sensation in the Courtroom.

Miss Oakley, the victim, is a handsome mountain lassie and seems to have more than ordinary intelligence for one of her station in life.

This is a "dodge" that has already been worn threadbare by the festive moonshiner.

A CYCLONE.

The Worst in the History of North Texas Visits Sherman.

Many People Were Killed and Property Greatly Damaged.

A Game of Ball Was in Progress—Grand Stand Destroyed and the Several Tents in Back Tents Were Killed, With Spectators.

DENTON, Tex., May 16.—The city of Sherman was visited by the worst cyclone in the history of northern Texas about five o'clock Friday evening. The path of the destroyer was 150 yards wide. It struck the city at the west end of Post Oak creek and swept in a westerly direction for several blocks and then spread and spent its force. The track of the cyclone is a gruesome sight, the devastation being complete, houses, trees, fences and everything in its pathway destroyed. The loss of life will probably reach one hundred, with many more injured and wounded. The city hall and a vacant store room have been turned into temporary hospitals and 18 buried, mangled and mutilated bodies are awaiting identification. At these two places at this writing nearly every house in Fairview addition has been turned into a hospital.

SHERMAN, Tex., May 16.—A terrific cyclone struck this city at half past four Friday afternoon, killing many people and doing great damage to property. The number of people killed is not known, but it is reported all the way from 10 to 75. There is great excitement and great confusion, and it will be morning before a list of the killed and injured can be obtained. A game of ball between the San Antonio teams was in progress when the cyclone struck them. The grand stand was destroyed and it is believed several players on each team were killed, together with many spectators.

DENTON, Tex., May 16.—A cyclone struck the town of Denton, killing eight miles north of Denton, Friday afternoon. Four persons were killed and five others so badly injured they can not live. The property damage is great.

HOWE, Tex., May 16.—Friday's terrible cyclone struck this town, following the path of the cyclone at this point was a quarter of a mile wide. Eight persons were killed outright and many injured. Later—The dead may number 70 or 80 and the injured 100 more. Death and desolation held every Friday night over a country of happy homes and pleasant breezes on which the sun rose Friday morning. Every town and hamlet in the path of the whirling monster is in ruins, its buildings and other occupants torn to pieces and scattered over the wide plain.

At Home, Tex., Friday persons were killed and many injured. Four were killed at Denton, and five or six at Griggs Springs. At June 20 persons were blown down and W. L. Evans, of Keller, Tex., killed. Seventeen were injured.

At 12:30 ten bodies were brought in from Wakefield farm, three miles southwest of the town, five of whom were named Piers. One of the bodies not identified that of a lady who must have been blown a mile. One mile southwest of town a child was found in a tree. It is not known whence it came.

The rebel leader, Manuel Romero, was shot Friday morning at Cienfuegos.

A Double Tragedy.

Ulmer, who was intoxicated, began shooting. Both Daves and Suther were killed. Ulmer fled to his brother's home, and after three hours kept constantly at bay, but finally surrendered.

There will be two trains a day in each direction, one morning and one evening.

Snowstorm at Denver.
DENVER, May 16.—An snowstorm visited this city Friday, although the weather is not cold. The snow melted in the city almost as fast as it fell. It remained several inches deep on the plains. The farmers welcomed it because they needed water for irrigation.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 16.—Edwards, an employee of the Pullman Palace Car Co., committed suicide in this city Friday night, after shooting his wife in the temple. Mrs. Edwards may recover.

HORRIBLE STORY.

The Butchery of Unarmed and Unprotected Cubans by the Spanish Troops.

PUNTA PRATA, May 16.—An afternoon newspaper Friday printed the following story:

No more forcible evidence of the butchery of unarmed and unprotected Cubans by the Spanish troops could be adduced than by advices received in this city Friday afternoon. From Matanzas, Cuba, which graphically depict the barbarous and inhuman means employed by the Spanish soldiers in their war against the Cubans. The letter was dated May 9, and reached this city through private sources, for the reason, as cited in the communication, that all letters that go via Havana post office are tampered with and frequently do not reach their destination.

The letter starts out with the statement that 64 non-combatants, men, women and children, were met by a Spanish column under Col. Abdo in the town of Savanilla, near Matanzas, and fired upon by his orders. Twenty-seven were killed instantly and the remainder were taken to a place called San Juan, where they were set on fire by the troops and all perished in the flames and the bodies were left as food for the buzzards.

Another case was then mentioned. It was that of two bodies of white men which were found on the shores of Matanzas Bay. These bodies were taken together, and there was unmistakable evidence of having been killed by machetes. The discovery of the bodies caused a great sensation, and now the authorities are trying to make out that it was the work of the insurgents.

The writer points out that this is ridiculous for the reason that the insurgents are not in possession of Matanzas and that the men were political prisoners confined in San Severino castle, where assassinations of this kind are said to be carried on almost nightly, and the bodies cast into the bay to be dealt with weights attached to their feet.

Having Reference to the Early Dissolution of Congress.

The subject of Dr. Talmage Sunday was: "Before they Adjourn," having reference to the early dissolution of congress, and the text selected was: Psalms cv., 22, "And teach his Senators wisdom."

So constant and malignant is this work of deprecation and scandalization in regard to our public men, that all over the land there are those who suppose that the city of Washington is the center of all corruption, while, what with its parks and its equestrian statuary and its wide streets, and its architectural symmetries, and its lovely homes, it is not only the most beautiful city under the sun, but has the highest style of citizenship. I have seen but one intoxicated man in the more than six months of my residence, and I do not think any man can give similar testimony of any other city on the American continent.

It was only an oversight or a momentary accident that the authority which made the constitution of the church directly responsible to them. They all, so far as they were concerned, believed in
"God, the Father Almighty, the Holy Spirit, and Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son." The constitution would have been a failure had it not been for the fact that the members of the convention could agree on nothing until, in response to Benjamin Franklin's request that the meetings
be held in the name of the Father and the Son, to interfere and help, and when the way was cleared, and all the signers agreed the document: a historical testimony to the fact that the modern infidelity can not bark out of control. Know that there was an exception to the fact that the promises were made to the fathers.

Again, before the approaching adjournment of our American congress, I would like to say a few words, settled that no appropriations be made to sectarian schools, and that the court-ship between church and state in this country be broken off for ever. The question seems already temporarily settled. I wish it might be completely and forever settled. All schools and colleges, whether of the Catholic or other religions, should stand on the same level before American law. Emperor Alexander the Great once said to his subjects: "I asked how many denominations of religion there were in America. I received their names as well as I could. Then he said: 'I will break them all up.' And there and there I broke down. But when I told him that no religious denomination in America had any privileges over the others, he said: 'I will understand it.' The Greek church first in Russia. The Lutheran church first in Sweden. The Calvinistic church first in England. The Catholic church first in Rome. The Mohammedanism first in Constantinople. The emperor would have been satisfied with these distinctions in America could stand on the same platform. But so it is, and so let it be. Let us have no more of no partiality, no attempt to help one sect an inch higher than another. Washington and Jefferson and all the great statesmen of the past have lifted their voice against any tendency, whether school or institution can not stand on the same level as the others. I therefore, then let that school or institution go down. On the other side of the question, I have a few illustrations of church and state united. Let us have none of the hypocrisy and demoralization born of that relation on either side. Let us have no domination come out ahead that does the most for the cause of God and humanity. Let us have no man or institution getting what they achieve by their own right arm of usefulness, and not by the favoritism of government. As for religious institutions, keep police out of religious affairs, and let the religious
